

FOODSCAPES

bankbakegroweatalk share

Sat 15th – Tues 25th June
The Parlour Showrooms
31 College Green
Bristol BS1 5TB
Free, daily
from 10am – 5pm

What did you eat yesterday ?
What will you eat tomorrow ?

Foodscapes invites you to explore an altered edible landscape that reveals and remixes the everyday realities and rituals of a food poverty charity, greenhouse, bakehouse and kitchen table.

DAILY: a relay of bread making new photography exhibition discover what Bristol ate yesterday

Friday 21st June, 6-9pm
Summer Solstice Salon
hosted by artist Paul Hurley.
An evening of poetry and performance, baking and breaking bread, and planting out summer seedlings.
Free but places limited so RSVP to events@kwmc.org.uk

Visit www.kwmc.org.uk for a daily schedule.
Tell us what you've eaten today by tweeting #foodscapeskw or texting FOODSCAPES and your answer to 07786 205 227

FOODSCAPES

bankbakegroweatcalk share

Foodscares has grown from a collaboration between artist Paul Hurley, Knowle West Media Centre, academic researchers and community partners (a food poverty charity, a growers collective and bread bakers).

Together they are investigating social and economic exclusion, food poverty, sustainability and how alternative food systems might engage with these issues.

Follow the research project:
<http://whosedata.net/ct/foodsc>
<http://foodscaresbristol.wordpress.com>

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

University of the West of England

Arts & Humanities Research Council

